Hello Angstrom Gallery,

I have a yet to be realized project called An Endless Stream of Losers and Tyra's Bullshit that I'd love for your gallery to exhibit. The piece will consist of a large crowd of televisions displaying Tyra Banks' face, along with audio of her judgements of all the pairs of models that are in danger of going home on each episode of America's Top Model. In the center of this crowd will be a television displaying a stream of all the pairs of models up on the chopping block. The audio of their sob stories will be playing faintly. Tyra's judgements will be much louder and asynchronous... and terrifying.

If interested in exhibiting this project, please let me know... thanks for your consideration!

Best,

Sean Ripple
